Zeph's One Stop hosting inaugural Hallo-Wine Bash and costume party

Zeph's One Stop in Salinas will be filled with ghosts and goblins, witches and superheroes the Saturday before Halloween for its inaugural Hallo-Wine Bash.

"This is the first time we're doing a Halloween party," said Jessica James, Zeph's event planner. "There's not a lot going on in Salinas as far as costume parties go, and we just wanted to try it out. We're trying to do more events here."

Zeph's already features live music on Fridays, wine tastings the third Thursday of the month and hopes to add more events, James said.

The Hallo-Wine Bash will feature music, glasses of Zeph's "Spooky Sangria" and will also be pouring Stoke's Ghost, a Petite Sirah from Scheid Vineyards, for $10 a glass. There will also be beer and small bites available.

A costume party will feature prizes for "Best Costume," "Best Duo" and "Most Original," with wine tasting for two and bottles of wine as prizes. Bottles of wine will also be raffled off.

There is no admission cost, and the event is open to the public.

Zeph's Hallo-Wine Bash and costume party will be held 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. Oct. 27, at Zeph's One Stop, 1366 South Main St. in Salinas.
